Luxury apartment Antibes

Prestigious apartments in an exceptional residence in the heart of Juan-les-Pins! Located between Guy de Maupassant and Louis Gallet avenues, just steps from the beaches, this refined and rare development combines historic charm with modern comfort. The façades, roofs, and ironwork of the former hotels and palaces have been carefully restored, while contemporary buildings complement the ensemble. These feature large bay windows, private terraces, and durable materials, offering unobstructed views of the Mediterranean. The apartment presented is a luxurious three-room flat located on the 6th and top floor. The interior is designed to be bright and practical, with elegant fittings. Its outdoor space is crafted to promote a peaceful and green living environment, with exceptional views. A vast landscaped area forms the heart of the project, inspired by Belle Époque gardens with flower-adorned pergolas, walkways, a reflecting pool, and a citrus garden. This development thus blends heritage enhancement, contemporary architecture, and quality of life, perfectly in tune with the spirit of the French Riviera.
