House Cabris

Just a short walk from the village of Cabris on top of a hill, this magnificent stone property of 155 m2 is situated with exceptional panoramic views of the Mediterranean Sea and the surrounding hills. Built in the 1970s, it combines Provençal charm, generous proportions and a tranquil atmosphere. The ground floor has a bright living room with fireplace opening onto the terraces, as well as a fully equipped kitchen. Two suites on the first floor offer exceptional comfort. Upstairs, two bedrooms, one with a private terrace and stunning sea views, complete the sleeping areas. The property is set on 2300 m2 of landscaped grounds, and features an olive grove, a pool area. A basement/garden level houses a wine cellar, laundry room, storage room and a large garage. All with excellent potential for development.
