COZY AUTHENTIC TOWNHOUSE WITH FANTASTIC VIEW FROM THE TERRACE!

This soulful old town house (102 m²) holds a lot of history. There are over 3 floors where the kitchen is on the top floor with access to a lovely terrace. And another terrace with a fantastic view of the beautiful natural landscape the Les Asprés region can offer. You enter the house solid front door. To the right is the guest room with two beds, a cozy sitting area, a bathroom with shower and separate toilet. There is also a storage room and a practical laundry room. A charming staircase leads up to the living room with its Godin fireplace. This floor also consists of the master bedroom with its own bathroom and toilet. Up another floor to the lovely and spacious village kitchen. From here there is access to the terrace and the roof terrace with a panoramic view. Beams and stone are in beautiful harmony. The roof was completely new in 1999 and new gutters and downpipes have recently been installed. The house is well maintained and has been used as a holiday home. It is sold furnished. Fourques: A quiet village with a supermarket. Only 10 minutes from Thuir, which can offer most shops, restaurants and markets. The surrounding villages are like pearls on a string and there is much to experience in this beautiful
